REGULAR MEMBER ELIGIBILITY

A. Regular membership in this Association shall be open to any company, or division or subsidiary thereof, located in the United States, or in the case of a foreign domiciled company operating in the United States, in the financing of equipment to other commercial users or in the funding or arranging of such financing, or in investing in such financing or in any company which engages in such financing. The specific requirements for, and the financial obligations of, Regular members shall be specified from time to time by the Board of Directors. A member entity, as defined from time to time by the Board of Directors, shall be treated as a Regular member except for purposes of dues.

B. Regular membership in this Association shall be in the form of company membership, rather than individual representation, except that a sole proprietorship shall be eligible for Regular membership. In all matters requiring a vote of the membership, each Regular member shall be entitled to only one vote.

C. Application for Regular membership in the Association shall be made in writing in such manner and upon such forms as the Board of Directors may from time to time prescribe. Approval of an application for Regular membership shall be made in accordance with rules and procedures approved by the Board of Directors.
